

2027 Monthly Calendar & Planner

Thank you! This ADHD-friendly calendar gives you 3 pages a month: a month calendar with every 2027 date and weekday already filled in, a habit & mood tracker, and a month reset. Pick the one file that fits how you plan.

Printing, iPad and license

Printing (Letter and A4 files)

- Choose Actual size or Scale 100%. Do not use "Fit to page", so boxes stay the size they were made.
- Print just one month: type the page range in the Pages box, e.g. Pages 5–7 for January or Pages 38–40 for December. Print the whole year: pages 1–41.
- The pages use black and one light gray only, with no large color areas, so they print clearly in black & white and use little ink.
- The left margin is wider (about 19 mm on Letter, 18 mm on A4) so you can hole-punch pages for a binder.

GoodNotes (iPad file)

1. Save the iPad PDF to Files (tap the file, then Share › Save to Files).
2. In GoodNotes, tap + › Import, pick the PDF and choose "Import as new document".
3. To jump, tap a tab (Year, Jan ... Dec) or a button (Habits, Reset, Back to calendar). If a tap draws instead of jumping, switch to read-only mode (the pen icon at the top), or turn on the "Draw with Apple Pencil only" setting and tap with your finger.

Notability (iPad file)

1. Save the iPad PDF to Files.
2. In Notability, tap Import, choose Files and pick the PDF.
3. Tap links with your finger while the Apple Pencil writes. Links work best when no writing tool is active.

Links are internal PDF links; they work in apps that support them (GoodNotes, Notability, Xodo, Apple Books / Preview). The Letter and A4 files are made for printing and do not have tab links.

No holidays printed

No holidays are printed in any file, because holidays differ by country and family. Add the ones you keep on the Key Dates page (page 4) and on your month calendars.
