> Don't open file 99 until every ballot is in. Print booklets single-sided (or cut page 3 on its dashed line) so later rounds can't show through. Ask another guest or a family member to cut the evidence cards and fill the envelopes, so the host can play too.

Questions & Answers

6 QUICK ANSWERS

Can the host play?

Yes. Take booklet 10 or 11 (the casting chart says so) and ask a helper to cut the evidence cards. The Host Guide never reveals the answer.

Is it OK for teens and grandparents?

Yes. It's PG and suits ages 12 and up: no adult jokes, no flirting, no drinking tasks and nothing gory. Goldie simply never wakes from a nap in her rocking chair.

We're not American. Does it still work?

Yes. It's a Friendsgiving among friends, not a history lesson, and every file comes in A4 as well as US Letter. Canadian Thanksgiving or an autumn dinner party in the UK or Australia works just as well.

Can we play after dinner in 90 minutes?

Yes. The Express timetable in the Host Guide runs exactly 90 minutes, and there is a 60-minute plan too.

Do we have to drink?

No. There are no drinking tasks, the cider in the story is alcohol-free and every drink idea in the Host Guide is alcohol-free.

Black-and-white printing?

Yes. Text is near-black on light pages, and every round, card and optional character is labeled in words, not only by color.
