FOR EVERY GUEST

How the night works

1. Bring your dish (it's on your invitation) and set it by your table tent.
2. Arrive in character, pick up your name tag and read page 2 of your booklet quietly.
3. Three rounds: Appetizers, The Main Course and Pie. Share, ask and try your mission. Evidence cards appear each round; read them, never remove them.
4. Accusation over coffee: vote on who, how and why. Then the truth is read aloud.

Innocent characters may dodge questions about their secrets until their booklet says to share. Only one person may lie outright. No drinking tasks, nothing scary: just good food, good friends and a twist.

COPY · PASTE · SEND

Copy this into an email or group chat. Swap in your details, then send each guest their character, booklet number and dish (or the booklet PDF itself; it reads fine on a phone).

GROUP MESSAGE

You're invited to The Gravy Boat Murder, a cozy Friendsgiving murder mystery!

It's the tenth annual Friendsgiving at Juniper Barn. Before the meal, cooking-show star Marigold "Goldie" Ashby tastes the first spoonful of gravy from her antique silver gravy boat, settles into the rocking chair... and never wakes up. Every guest brought a dish. Every guest had a reason. Including you.

When: [date and time]
Where: [address]
RSVP: [by date, to whom]

It's a potluck: your character comes with a dish to bring (store-bought is fine). Dress the part, bring your appetite and your best detective face. It's clean, it's PG, and nobody has to act: your booklet tells you what to say.

PRIVATE MESSAGE TO EACH GUEST

Hi [name]! At The Gravy Boat Murder you'll play [character name], [role] (booklet No. [number]). Your dish to bring: [dish]. I'll hand you your booklet at the door, or I'm attaching it now. Please only read page 1 for now; it has your outfit ideas. Pages 2–4 wait for the party!

HOST TIP

Fill in the Potluck Planner (file 04) as replies come in, and ask every guest about allergies in the same message.
