Opening the Planner, Privacy and Printing

HOW TO OPEN THE HTML PLANNER

- Unzip the download first. Then double-click Murder-Mystery-Host-Planner.html. It opens in your web browser (Chrome, Edge, Safari or Firefox).
- No internet is needed and there is nothing to install. Only the "See the game" links in Game match need a connection.
- Keep the file in one place (for example, your Documents folder) and open it from there each time, so your saved plan is there when you come back.
- Use a computer for the printables. The planner also opens on a tablet or phone for checking your list on the go.
- The e-book Murder-Mystery-Host-Guide.epub opens in any EPUB reader, such as Apple Books, Google Play Books, Kobo or the free Calibre app.

PRIVACY

Everything you type stays in your browser's storage on this device. Nothing is uploaded or sent to us. To move your plan to another computer or browser, press Export backup (.json) and then Import backup on the other device. Clearing your browser history and site data also clears the planner, so export a backup first.

PRINT TIPS

Scale: print at 100% ("Actual size"), not "Fit to page", so cards keep their size and cut lines line up.
Paper: plain paper is fine for planner pages and notebooks. Card stock (65–110 lb / 176–300 gsm) feels nicer for name tags, table signs and certificates.
Black and white: every line, box and label prints clearly in black and white. Color looks best on certificates.
Single-sided: print ballots, name tags and table signs on one side only. Fold the table signs on the FOLD line so the text reads from both sides.
From the HTML planner: pick US Letter or A4 above the Print buttons, and turn off headers and footers in the print window.

HOST TIP: PLAY ALONG

Ask another guest or a family member to cut your game's clue cards and seal them in envelopes. That way you never read the clues early, and you can guess along with everyone else.

USING IT WITH ANY GAME

The kit has no story of its own and no characters, so it never clashes with your game. Copy the character list from your game's host guide into the planner (one name per line). Use the Detective Notebook for any whodunit with suspects, clues and alibis, and the awards for any party.

PERSONAL USE

Print as many copies as you need for your own parties, at home, school or work. Please don't share or resell the files. If a file won't open or something is missing, contact us through the store page where you bought the kit.
