AT THE CONTEST, EVERYONE KNOWS

Kit owns the Kettle Tea Room and makes the judges’ tea every year.

How this booklet works

- 1 Read page 2 now, quietly. It tells you who you are, where you were and your own little secret.
- 2 Wait for the Inspector. Round 1 is on page 3. Your Round 2 and Round 3 come as sealed slips: open each one only when Chief Inspector Crumb says so.
- 3 Talk, ask and solve! Share your clues, ask your questions and vote for who has the Golden Whisk.

Good questions

No peeking ahead, Detective!

Turn the page only when the Inspector says “Open your case files.” Keep your sealed slips closed until your round is called.

★ You did NOT take the Golden Whisk.

You want Chief Inspector Crumb to find out who did.

If your character is not in the game, the mystery still works.

Who you are

You own the Kettle Tea Room. You asked Sunny if the Golden Whisk could sit in your window. Sunny said no.

YOUR LITTLE SECRET

Your window sign says “Coming soon: something golden!” It is a new golden teapot, not the Whisk.

Where you were, 2 to 3 pm

2:00–2:40 Your Tea Room. Juniper ordered tea at 2:17 and waited at the counter until 2:37. The tea was slow because you burned the first scones.

2:40 Heard the news.

If someone asks you...

“What is ‘something golden’?” “Wait and see!” (Tell in Round 2.)

“Was Juniper with you?” “Yes, from 2:17 to 2:37, right at my counter.”

“Did you want the Whisk?” “In my window, yes. Taken, never!”

MY NOTES

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are approximately 20 lines visible. The paper has a slightly textured appearance and is set against a dark background.
