DRESS-UP IDEA

A cardigan, any pair of glasses, a clipboard, and a cloth in your pocket.

AT THE CONTEST, EVERYONE KNOWS

Juniper helps the judges every year: keeps the score sheets, fetches the judges' tea and polishes the Golden Whisk before the big moment.

How this booklet works

- 1 Read page 2 now, quietly. It tells you who you are, where you were and your own little secret.
- 2 Wait for the Inspector. Round 1 is on page 3. Your Round 2 and Round 3 come as sealed slips: open each one only when Chief Inspector Crumb says so.
- 3 Talk, ask and solve! Share your clues, ask your questions and vote for who has the Golden Whisk.

Good questions

No peeking ahead, Detective!

Turn the page only when the Inspector says "Open your case files." Keep your sealed slips closed until your round is called.

★ You did NOT take the Golden Whisk.

You want Chief Inspector Crumb to find out who did.

Who you are

You look after the Golden Whisk. You polish it every year, and secretly you wish for a shiny new trophy.

YOUR LITTLE SECRET

At 2:12 you dropped the Whisk while polishing! One loop bent a tiny bit. You bent it back and told nobody.

Where you were, 2 to 3 pm

- 2:10–2:15 Display Tent, polishing the Whisk.
- 2:15 Told Sunny the Whisk was back. Walked to the Tea Room.
- 2:17–2:37 Kettle Tea Room counter, waiting for the judges' tea.
- 2:40 Back at the Display Tent. The stand was empty!

If someone asks you...

“Why is your cloth so gold?” “Polishing makes it gold. That’s normal!”

“Did you hide the Whisk?” “No! I was at the Tea Room.”

“Do you want a new trophy?” “Maybe... the Whisk is SO old.”
