AT THE CONTEST, EVERYONE KNOWS

How this booklet works

- 1 Read page 2 now, quietly. It tells you who you are, where you were and your own little secret.
- 2 Wait for the Inspector. Round 1 is on page 3. Your Round 2 and Round 3 come as sealed slips: open each one only when Chief Inspector Crumb says so.
- 3 Talk, ask and solve! Share your clues, ask your questions and vote for who has the Golden Whisk.

Good questions

No peeking ahead, Detective!

Turn the page only when the Inspector says “Open your case files.” Keep your sealed slips closed until your round is called.

★ You did NOT take the Golden Whisk.

You want Chief Inspector Crumb to find out who did.

If your character is not in the game, the mystery still works.

Who you are

You are in the Garden Show at the Bandstand. The cake winner gets a golden trophy. You only get a paper ribbon. Not fair!

YOUR LITTLE SECRET

Your giant prize tomato is from the shop! Your own tomatoes are tiny this year.

Where you were, 2 to 3 pm

2:00–2:45 Your Garden Show table at the Bandstand. (If Hazel is playing, Hazel's honey stall was next to you.)

2:45 Heard the news and walked over.

If someone asks you...

“Why do you have a big garden sack?” “For my tools and my tomatoes.”

“Are you jealous of the Golden Whisk?” “A little. But I want my OWN trophy.”

“Where were you?” “At the Bandstand, polishing tomatoes.”
