

YOU ARE PLAYING

Dot Sprinkles

Candy Shop Clerk

“Anything shiny, sparkly or sweet? I want it!”

Played by: _____

DRESS-UP IDEA

Lots of colors, dot stickers, and a bag of pretend candy.

AT THE CONTEST, EVERYONE KNOWS

Dot works at Sprinkles Candy Shop, next door to Rise & Shine Bakery, and collects anything shiny.

How this booklet works

- 1 Read page 2 now, quietly. It tells you who you are, where you were and your own little secret.
- 2 Wait for the Inspector. Round 1 is on page 3. Your Round 2 and Round 3 come as sealed slips: open each one only when Chief Inspector Crumb says so.
- 3 Talk, ask and solve! Share your clues, ask your questions and vote for who has the Golden Whisk.

Good questions

No peeking ahead, Detective!

Turn the page only when the Inspector says “Open your case files.” Keep your sealed slips closed until your round is called.

★ You did NOT take the Golden Whisk.

You want Chief Inspector Crumb to find out who did.

If your character is not in the game, the mystery still works.

Who you are

You work at Sprinkles Candy Shop, next to the bakery. You love shiny things. You once said, “I’d love the Golden Whisk in my shop!”

YOUR LITTLE SECRET

You ate all the gummy bears from the shop window display. Every single one.

Where you were, 2 to 3 pm

2:00–2:40

Behind the candy shop counter. At about 2:20 you saw someone in a white apron carry a big bowl with a towel over it down the bakery’s back alley. You couldn’t see a face.

2:40

Heard the shout.

If someone asks you...

“Why are your pockets full of gold?” “Gold-wrapped chocolate coins!”

“Did you see anything?” “Someone in a white apron with a bowl, at about 2:20.”

“Do you sell pink sugar?” “We sold out yesterday!”
