★ Remy Dough, the bakery apprentice, took the Golden Whisk.

How: at 2:18 Remy carried the pink frosting bowl through the back flap, lifted the Whisk off its cushion and left the note. Remy whipped the frosting in the closed bakery's back room (2:20–2:35), then hid the Whisk in a cake tin under Station 2 and dropped the sticky apron in the Lost & Found. Why: it was Remy's first contest, and everyone says a cake whipped with the Golden Whisk can't lose. Remy only meant to borrow it.

🍴 The clue chain: five steps

1

When: between 2:15 and 2:40.

Juniper's tag puts the Whisk back on its cushion at 2:15. Juniper found the stand empty at 2:40.

2

The thief walked through Station 2's pink sugar.

The footprints are pink sparkle sugar and come from the Contest Kitchen. Pink sugar went only to Station 2, and the bag ripped there, spilling it all over that floor. Pink grains were left on the cushion too.

3

Station 2 was empty in the window.

From about 2:18 to about 2:36 Station 2 was empty, and the pink frosting bowl was gone too. Everyone else from the Kitchen was busy in plain sight: Pip and Sunny on the radio, Max at the machine.

4

The Whisk was used in Station 2's frosting.

The old Whisk sheds tiny gold flakes when it is used. Station 2's bowl is full of fluffy pink frosting with gold flakes in it, and nobody was given gold sugar today.

5

Everyone else was somewhere else.

Pip, Sunny and Max: on the radio tape the whole time. Toby: at the Sugar Mill. Juniper: at the Tea Room counter. That leaves Station 2's baker, Remy Dough. The bonus clues agree: a bakery apron with gold flakes, the bakery bell at 2:20 and 2:35, and frosting splashes in the bakery back room.

Why Not the Others?

11 SUSPECTS, 11 REASONS

Every character had a reason to want the Whisk and something that looked odd. Optional characters (16–21) only matter if they were played.

SUSPECT	LOOKED ODD BECAUSE...	CLEARED BY
10 Pip Butterworth	Didn't want to hand the Whisk over; brought its empty box.	On the radio with Sunny at Station 1 the whole time (E6).
12 Sunny Sugarby	Clipboard says "HIDE IT! SURPRISE!" (a birthday cake plan).	Running the radio interview with Pip, 2:15–2:40 (E6).
13 Max Mixwell	Wanted to see how the Whisk works; pink sneakers; chocolate sprinkle on E2.	Never left Station 3 (E6: machine whirring, "It works!" at 2:30). The sprinkles flew everywhere at 2:05.
14 Juniper Crumble	Last to touch it; gold cloth; dropped it at 2:12.	At the Tea Room counter 2:17–2:37 (E8). Never in the Kitchen, so no pink sugar.
15 Toby Tart	Family made the Whisk; pink boots.	At the Sugar Mill, 2:10–2:40 (E9).
16 Hazel Honeycomb	Turned down for the Bee Parade; sticky gold sleeve; in the Display Tent 2:05–2:08.	Left before 2:15, when the Whisk was still there (E1). The gold is honey. Never in the Kitchen.
17 Ollie Oatley	Wrote "GOLDEN WHISK GONE!" at 2:30.	A practice headline. At the Fountain all afternoon; never in the Kitchen.
18 Lulu Lemonade	Wanted the Whisk for a lemonade photo.	At the Fountain 2:00–2:40. Only had yellow lemon sugar.
19 Basil Brightwater	Jealous of the golden trophy; big garden sack.	At the Bandstand until 2:45. The sack holds tools and tomatoes.
20 Kit Kettle	Wanted it in the window; "Coming soon: something golden!"	At the Tea Room with Juniper (E8). It's a golden teapot.
21 Dot Sprinkles	Loves shiny things; works next to the bakery.	Behind the candy shop counter; never in the Kitchen. The gold in Dot's pockets is chocolate coins.

READ ALOUD AS CHIEF INSPECTOR CRUMB

Detectives, the ballots are in. Here is what happened on Sprinkle Street today.

At 2:15, the Golden Whisk was polished and back on its cushion. At 2:18, someone walked out of the Contest Kitchen with pink sugar on their shoes and a bowl of pink frosting in their hands. Pink sugar came from only one place: Station 2.

Pip and Sunny were on the radio. Max was with that noisy machine. Toby was at the Sugar Mill, and Juniper was waiting for tea. But Station 2 was empty. And the bowl that came back was full of fluffy frosting, sparkling with tiny gold flakes from the Golden Whisk.

It was Remy Dough, our bakery apprentice! Remy, would you like to tell everyone why?

Let Remy's player explain. If they're shy, read: "It was my first contest. I was so nervous, and everyone says the Golden Whisk is lucky. I only wanted to borrow it. I'm really sorry."

Thank you for telling the truth, Remy. Now please bring the Whisk back from your cake tin.

Hand the paper Golden Whisk (file 36) to Remy's player to put back on the stand. Lead a big cheer.

The judges have tasted all three cakes and say they are all delicious. So the Golden Whisk will spend four months with each baker this year! Now, the awards for our detectives!
