

2027 Monthly Calendar & Planner

Thank you! This ADHD-friendly calendar gives you 3 pages a month: a month calendar with every 2027 date and weekday already filled in, a habit & mood tracker, and a month reset. Bonus: a Brain dump page, a Minimum version page for low-energy days, and 4 focus phone wallpapers. Pick the one calendar file that fits how you plan.

Every calendar file has the same 43 pages in the same order (41 calendar pages + 2 bonus pages), so the page numbers below work for all six. Only the weekday order (Sunday or Monday first) and the paper size change. The weekday letters on the habit trackers always follow the real 2027 calendar.

Page map (same in every file)

PAGE	WHAT	MONTH	PAGES	MONTH	PAGES
1	Cover (shows your edition)	January	5-7	July	23-25
2	How to use	February	8-10	August	26-28
3	2027 Year at a Glance	March	11-13	September	29-31
4	2027 Key Dates	April	14-16	October	32-34
5-40	12 months × 3 pages: calendar, habits & mood, reset	May	17-19	November	35-37
41	Notes (dot grid)	June	20-22	December	38-40
42	Bonus: Brain dump (any month)
43	Bonus: Minimum version (low-energy days)

Inside each month: first page = Month calendar, second = Habit & Mood tracker, third = Month reset. Example: March calendar is page 11, March habits page 12, March reset page 13. The December reset (page 40) points to January 2028. Pages 42-43 are undated: print or duplicate them as often as you need.

Printing, iPad and license

Printing (Letter and A4 files)

- Choose Actual size or Scale 100%. Do not use "Fit to page", so boxes stay the size they were made.
- Print just one month: type the page range in the Pages box, e.g. Pages 5–7 for January or Pages 38–40 for December. Print the whole year: pages 1–43. Extra Brain dump or Minimum version sheets: pages 42 or 43, as many copies as you like.
- The pages use black and one light gray only, with no large color areas, so they print clearly in black & white and use little ink.
- The left margin is wider (about 19 mm on Letter, 18 mm on A4) so you can hole-punch pages for a binder.

GoodNotes (iPad file)

1. Save the iPad PDF to Files (tap the file, then Share › Save to Files).
2. In GoodNotes, tap + › Import, pick the PDF and choose "Import as new document".
3. To jump, tap a tab (Year, Jan ... Dec) or a button (Habits, Reset, Back to calendar). If a tap draws instead of jumping, switch to read-only mode (the pen icon at the top), or turn on the "Draw with Apple Pencil only" setting and tap with your finger.

Notability (iPad file)

1. Save the iPad PDF to Files.
2. In Notability, tap Import, choose Files and pick the PDF.
3. Tap links with your finger while the Apple Pencil writes. Links work best when no writing tool is active.

Each iPad file has 658 internal links: 13 tabs on pages 2–43, the 12 months on the cover, page 3 and page 4, Habits, Reset and Brain dump on every month calendar, "Back to calendar" on every tracker and reset, Minimum version on every habit tracker, and the three "One month = 3 pages" cards on page 2. They work in apps that support PDF links (GoodNotes, Notability, Xodo, Apple Books / Preview). To reuse a bonus page in GoodNotes, duplicate it. The Letter and A4 files are for printing and have no tab links.

Phone wallpapers (bonus)

4 PNGs at 1179 × 2556 px (iPhone 15 size; other phones crop the edges a little). Save one to Photos, then Settings › Wallpaper, or add all 4 to Photo Shuffle. The text sits below the lock-screen clock and widgets.

No holidays printed

No holidays are printed in any file, because holidays differ by country and family. Add the ones you keep on the Key Dates page (page 4) and on your month calendars.
