

ESL Grammar Games Offline

6 projector games and 640 original English sentences on 16 grammar points, all in one HTML file. No internet, no accounts.

3 steps

1. Unzip ESL-Offline-Grammar-Games.zip (on Windows: right-click → Extract All). Keep the folder on your computer or a USB stick.
2. Double-click ESL-Grammar-Games.html. It opens in your browser (Chrome, Edge, Safari or Firefox).
3. Tick grammar points, pick a game, choose 2–6 teams at the bottom of the start page and press F for full screen.

Your own sentences (My Sentences button)

One sentence per line. Put stars around the answer, then | and 1–3 wrong options. The 1st wrong option becomes the mistake in Fix the Mistake.

She has lived here since 2019. | lived, has live, is living
We went to the beach last weekend. | goed, go, have gone

Levels: A1–B2, no C1, sentences in English only. There is no Pre-A1 / young-learner level and no built-in translation. You can paste your own sentences with Chinese, Japanese or Korean hints and they display normally.

Good to know

Question	Answer
Safari does not open the file?	Right-click the file → Open With → Safari. If you see a warning, choose Open. The file needs no internet.
Where are my sentences saved?	Only in this browser on this computer (local storage). Nothing is uploaded. Clearing browser data deletes saved sets.
New computer or school PC?	In My Sentences press Export .txt, copy the .txt file, then Import .txt on the other computer.

Keys in every game

Space next / reveal · T timer · 1 2 3 4 5 6 teams · F full screen · Esc close · ? help

More: docs/Teacher-Guide (game rules, variations, sample lesson) and docs/Sentence-Bank (all 640 sentences to print).