What is inside the sentences

Each grammar point has 40 sentences: 20 on adult or neutral everyday topics (work, travel, shopping, housework, health, the city), 12 on school and teen life, and 8 on family, weather, animals and hobbies. Every sentence has one marked answer and 3 wrong options. The 1st wrong option is a typical learner mistake and is used as the error in Fix the Mistake and Grammar Auction.

Tip: print the Sentence Bank (docs folder) for classes without a projector, or to give students the full list for revision.

Setting up

Open the file

1. Unzip the download and double-click ESL-Grammar-Games.html. It runs in Chrome, Edge, Safari and Firefox from the file itself. No internet, no install, no accounts.
2. Safari: right-click the file → Open With → Safari.
3. The screen is designed for a projector or TV (16:9). It scales to any window; press F for full screen.

Choose the grammar

Tick one or more of the 16 grammar points, or press All A1... to tick a whole level. The dark pill shows how many sentences are selected; a game needs at least 5. Your selection stays the same in all 6 games. The Change grammar button in every game takes you back.

Teams and scores

Choose 2–6 teams and type their names at the bottom of the start page. In a game, click a team to make it the current team, double-click its name to rename it, and use + / – to change its score. Restart clears scores and starts the game again with fresh sentences.

Timer and sound

Click the ring or press T to start or pause; +5 / –5 change the time. At 0 a short beep plays (made by the browser, no sound files) and the screen edge flashes red. The speaker button turns sound off.

Sentences never repeat in a game

When all selected sentences are used, the game asks “All sentences used — reshuffle?”. The footer shows “Used x / y”.

GAME 01

Sentence Scramble

Players: 2–6 teams, or pairs

Time: 5–15 min

Levels: A1–B2

Steps

1. Tick the grammar points, open Sentence Scramble. The words of a correct sentence appear in mixed order.
2. The team whose turn it is (shown at the top) builds the sentence: students call out the order, you click the words. Click a word in the top row to send it back.
3. Press Check (C). Right order: the row turns green and the team gets +1. Wrong: the row shakes; let them try again or pass.
4. Reveal (R) shows the sentence. Next (Space) moves to the next sentence and the next team.

Note: Check only accepts the original order. If a team finds another correct order, give the point with +.

2 classroom variations

Mini-whiteboards: All teams write the sentence at the same time; every team with the right order gets +1 with the + buttons.

Race the clock: Set the timer to 30 s (+5 / –5). If the team finishes before 0, give a bonus point.

Keyboard

Key	What it does
Space	Next sentence (next team)
C	Check
R	Reveal
1–6	Choose the team whose turn it is
T	Start / pause timer (default 60 s)
F Esc ?	Full screen · close · help

GAME 02

Fix the Mistake

Players: 2–6 teams

Time: 10–15 min

Levels: A1–B2

Steps

1. A sentence with one grammar mistake appears (the answer is replaced by the most common wrong form).
2. Teams talk for a moment, then say the whole sentence correctly. Use the optional timer (default 30 s).
3. Press Reveal (Space): the mistake gets a red line and the correct form appears in green above it.
4. Give +1 with the + button of each team that was right. Space goes to the next sentence.

2 classroom variations

Stand up, sit down: Everyone stands; students who can say the correct sentence sit down and score for their team.

Write it right: Teams write the corrected sentence on paper; check spelling too before you reveal.

Keyboard

Key	What it does
Space	Reveal, then next sentence
R	Reveal
1–6	Highlight a team
T	Start / pause timer (default 30 s)

GAME 03

Gap Fill Race

Players: 2–6 teams

Time: 10–15 min

Levels: A1–B2

Steps

1. A sentence with a gap and options A–D (2 options if your own line has only 1 wrong option) appears. The timer starts (15 s by default, 5–60 s with +5 / –5).
2. The first team to put a hand up buzzes in: press its number (1–6) or click the team.
3. The team says a letter; press A–D (or click). A right answer gives that team +1 and turns green; a wrong choice turns red and the right one is shown.
4. Show answer (R) reveals it without points. Space = next sentence.

2 classroom variations

One spokesperson: Only the student holding the team pen may answer; the pen moves after each question.

Steal: If a team is wrong, the next team that buzzes can answer before you show the answer.

Keyboard

Key	What it does
Space	Next sentence
1–6	Team buzzes in
A B C D	Choose the answer
R	Show answer
T	Start / pause timer

GAME 04

Grammar Auction

Players: 2–6 teams

Time: 15–25 min

Levels: A1–B2

Steps

1. Setup: number of teams, starting money (default 1000) and 8–12 sentences per round. About half of the sentences are wrong.
2. Show each lot (Space or →). Teams bid for sentences they think are correct. Choose the winning team and type the bid in the ledger.
3. A bid can never be more than the money a team has left; too-high bids are lowered and marked “Max ...”.
4. Reveal all: each lot shows ✓ Correct or ✗ Wrong with the correction. Correct sentences add the bid, wrong sentences take it away. The richest team wins.

Note: Example: start 1000, a correct sentence bought for 200 and a wrong sentence bought for 150 → final 1050.

2 classroom variations

Sell it back: After the reveal, teams correct every wrong sentence they bought to win back half the bid.

Silent bids: Teams write their bid on paper; the highest bid wins the lot.

Keyboard

Key	What it does
Space / →	Next lot
←	Previous lot
T	Start / pause timer (default 20 s)

GAME 05

Grammar Quiz Board

Players: 2–6 teams

Time: 15–25 min

Levels: A1–B2

Steps

1. Columns are the grammar points you ticked (2–5). With more than 5, the 5 with the most sentences are used and a message says so. With one point or one set, the board makes Set 1–5.
2. The current team picks a column and points (100–500). A gap-fill or fix-the-mistake question opens.
3. Show answer (R), then press Correct (points go to the current team) or Wrong. Turn on “Wrong = –points” for a harder game.
4. Used squares turn grey. Undo (U) restores the last square and its points. Play passes to the next team.

Note: This is a Jeopardy-style board: points by difficulty, but all questions come from your selection.

2 classroom variations

Double or nothing: For 500-point squares, the team may bet its points before seeing the question.

Expert column: Use one of your own sets (for example the errors from last week’s homework) as a column.

Keyboard

Key	What it does
A B C D	Answer a gap-fill question
R / Space	Show answer
U	Undo last square
1–6	Choose the current team
Esc	Close a question without using it
T	Start / pause timer

GAME 06

Grammar Tic-Tac-Toe

Players: 2 teams (X and O)

Time: 10–20 min

Levels: A1–B2

Steps

1. Choose 3×3 or 4×4. On 4×4 a team needs 4 in a row.
2. The team whose turn it is (big X or O banner) picks a square. A question opens: gap fill, fix the mistake or sentence scramble.
3. Correct: the team takes the square. Wrong: the other team plays.
4. A row lights up and the winner gets +1. A full board is a draw. New board keeps the score; Restart clears it.

2 classroom variations

Steal the square: If X answers wrongly, O can answer the same question to take the square.

Captains: Only the team captain can answer; change captains after every square.

Keyboard

Key	What it does
A B C D	Answer a gap-fill question
R / Space	Show answer
1–2	Choose the team whose turn it is

Writing your own sentences

Open My Sentences on the start page. One sentence per line:

sentence with the answer in stars | wrong 1, wrong 2, wrong 3

- Optional first line ## Set name. Lines starting with # are ignored, as are empty and repeated lines.
- 1–3 wrong options. With 1, Gap Fill and the Quiz Board show 2 choices.
- Lines without stars or without | are skipped and the panel tells you the line number.
- At least 5 sentences to start a game; up to 300 per set. Save up to 20 named sets; Import / Export .txt to move them.
- Hints in Chinese, Japanese or Korean display normally.

How to choose the 1st wrong option

The 1st wrong option is shown as the mistake in Fix the Mistake and in wrong Auction lots, so it must make the sentence clearly wrong. Use the error your students really make (goed, she go, more better, I am agree...), not a form that could also be correct.

Avoid: “I will call you later. | am going to” — both forms are correct, so the “mistake” is not a mistake.

5 examples

Unit 7 review

She has lived here since 2019. | lived, has live, is living

We went to the beach last weekend. | goed, go, have gone

My brother is taller than me. | more tall, tallest, more taller

I don't like spiders. 我不喜欢蜘蛛 | doesn't like, not like, don't likes

If it rains, we will stay at home. | would stay

The last line has only 1 wrong option (2 choices in Gap Fill). The 4th line has a Chinese hint for students.

Sample lesson: zero-prep 45-minute grammar review

Example: B1 · Present perfect vs past simple

4 teams

Projector

Time	Game	What you do
0–5 min	Set-up	Open the file, tick B1 “Present perfect vs past simple”, set 4 teams and names. Write the rule from the Sentence Bank on the board.
5–15 min	02 Fix the Mistake	8–10 sentences. Teams say the correct sentence; you reveal and give +1. Ask “Why?” after each reveal (since / ago / ever).
15–25 min	03 Gap Fill Race	10 sentences, 15-second timer. Fast buzzing, A–D answers. Keep the scores on the board.
25–40 min	04 Grammar Auction	10 lots, 1000 each. Teams discuss before every bid. Reveal all and discuss each wrong sentence.
40–45 min	Wrap-up	Teams add their totals from the three games. Students write 2 sentences of their own; type the best ones into My Sentences for next lesson.

Mixed review: tick 3–5 points (for example all of A2) and play the Grammar Quiz Board for 20 minutes instead of the Auction.

No projector? Read sentences from the printed Sentence Bank: say the 1st wrong option for a “fix the mistake” round.
