

Marlowe Gray

ETIQUETTE COLUMNIST

“There is a correct fork for every occasion. Including this one.”

♦ FOR YOUR EYES ONLY ♦

OPTIONAL CHARACTER

JOINS AT 11 PLAYERS

WHAT TO WEAR

Dress style: a vintage tea dress, gloves and reading glasses.

Suit style: a bow tie, a waistcoat and reading glasses.

At the party you are: precise, witty and quietly judging everyone's napkin folds.

Who you know: Writes the etiquette column “Ask Marlowe.” Covering the weekend for the column, with the Guest of Honor's blessing.

How this booklet works

Something Borrowed · Round 3: page 4. Then everyone votes.

Something Blue · the reveal: the Guest of Honor reads the truth aloud.

Print this booklet single-sided (or cut along the dashed line on page 3), so later rounds can't show through.

♦ THE WEEKEND ♦

A celebration weekend at Bluebell Lake Inn. At the welcome tea, celebrated wedding planner Celestine “Cece” Marchbanks sipped from the Guest of Honor's heirloom blue teacup, went upstairs to rest and never woke up. Everyone at this party had a reason to be at that tea.

Never show this booklet to anyone. You may dodge questions about your secret, but never change the evidence.

You are innocent.

You did not harm Cece and you are not the culprit. You may still have something to hide.

If you are not in the game, nothing breaks. You are an optional character: the case can be solved without your booklet.

Your story and your secret

Last month you wrote that Cece's weddings were "beautiful and joyless." Cece's lawyer sent a letter threatening to sue. You also wear glasses and carry gray microfiber cloths everywhere, each one monogrammed "MG."

Where you were (your alibi)

- 3:00–3:30 · In the upstairs library, writing your column.
- 3:20 · Shiloh Park popped in for one of Cece's books (if Shiloh is playing).
- 3:30 · Down to tea.

Your goal

Keep the lawyer's letter quiet until someone asks about your column. Prove the gray cloth isn't yours.

If someone asks you...

"That's a gray cloth!" → "Mine are monogrammed MG. Check the one in Evidence #9."

"Where were you?" → "In the library upstairs, writing."

"Did Cece sue you?" → "Cece threatened. Cece always threatened."

PLAYING TIP

Stay in character, share your "Share" lines when a round opens, and write down every time you hear on your Detective Notes. Someone's story will not match the clock.

Something Old

ROUND 1 · READ ONLY WHEN CALLED

Read only when the host starts Round 1.

Share

- You were in the upstairs library from 3:00 to 3:30, writing.
- You carry gray microfiber cloths for your glasses. Show one: it's monogrammed "MG."

KEEP QUIET FOR NOW · The lawyer's letter, unless someone asks about your column.

Ask

- Emerson Pryce: "Is it true Cece once reviewed this inn?"
- Shiloh Park: "Did Cece read my column?"

Your mission

Teach one guest the "correct" way to hold a teacup.

NOTES

✂ CUT OR FOLD HERE · ROUND 2 BELOW · WAIT FOR THE HOST

Something New

ROUND 2 · READ ONLY WHEN CALLED

Read only when the host starts Round 2.

Share

- The cloth in Evidence #9 has no monogram. Yours all do.

Ask

- Kendall Brooks: "Did Cece ever write about you?"
- Blair Ashdown: "What did Cece say at lunch?"

Your mission

Award one guest an "etiquette gold star" and explain why.

NOTES

Read only when the host starts Round 3.

 Share

- At 3:20 Shiloh came into the library for Cece's book and left two minutes later.

 Ask

- Finley Marsh: “Do you clean your lenses with a cloth like that?”
- Remy Okafor: “Did you see anyone near the garden doors?”

Your mission

Write a one-line “Ask Marlowe” headline about tonight and read it to the room.
