CORE CHARACTER

IN EVERY GAME

COSTUME FROM YOUR CLOSET

A long black cloak or dark bathrobe and a paper crown of candle flames cut from yellow card. Dot gold face paint across your cheeks.

Mask: a plain black eye mask, or two eye holes cut in a cereal box and tied with ribbon.

BRING TO THE BALL

- [ ] A pen for your notes
- [ ] Your costume and mask

How this booklet works

Before the ball: read page 2 alone. It holds your story and your secret.

Round 1: the top half of page 3, when the Detective says so.

Round 2: the lower half of page 3, below the cut line.

Costume Parade: strike a pose and stay in character.

Round 3: page 4. Then everyone casts a ballot.

Print this booklet single-sided, or cut page 3 on its dashed line, so later rounds can't show through.

THE BALL

Every Halloween, Vesper Ravensworth opens the old candle works on the hill for the Candlewick Costume Ball. This year Vesper promised "an announcement that will change Candlewick Hollow" at nine o'clock. Before it could be made, Vesper sat down in the window chair of the Lantern Gallery and never woke up. Minutes earlier, guests saw the Lantern Ghost drift past the glass.

Never show this booklet to anyone. Bend the truth about your secret, never the evidence.

You are the culprit.

You put sleep drops in Vesper's cider. Nobody must find out. You are the only player who may lie outright.

Your cover story: You never left the Dipping Room between 8:15 and nine o'clock. You were dipping tapers for the Costume Parade the whole time.

BACKGROUND

You came to the candle works as a teenager and never left. Two winters ago, with the roof leaking and your pay cut, you quietly sold the Hall's six antique brass candle molds to Hollow Antiques for $1,800 and put painted copies in the display case. Nobody noticed. Then this week an appraiser visited, and this afternoon Vesper took you aside: "Tell everyone the truth at nine, or I will."

WHAT REALLY HAPPENED

At 8:20 you snuffed the hour candle in the Dipping Room and, out of habit, chalked "Out 8:20" on the slate. You went up the Back Stairs to the Coat Room, took the fox mask Jory had just left on hook 3 and a bottle of sleep drops from Briar's sewing bag on hook 5. At the gallery's little cider kettle, where Vesper always leaves the pumpkin cup for a refill, you filled the cup, added the drops and, in your black cloak and the fox mask, carried it to Vesper at about 8:35. Vesper thought you were Jory and said, "Oh, thank you." You hurried back down the Back Stairs, pushed the mask and the empty bottle under the wax shavings in the Stockroom bin, and chalked "Back 8:45."

YOUR GOALS

- Keep suspicion away from yourself until the ballots are in.
- Point people toward Jory (it was Jory's fox mask), Briar (the sleep drops) and Darcy (the heir, also in gold face paint).
- Win the Best Bluffer award.

HOW TO USE YOUR BOOKLET

Read each round only when the Detective starts it. Use true details wherever you can. You may lie about yourself and your movements, but you may never change what an evidence card says. Stay friendly, stay calm and enjoy it.

ROUND 1

Read only when the Detective starts Round 1.

SHARE THIS WITH EVERYONE

You have been giving candle-dipping demonstrations in the Dipping Room since 8:00. At the 8:15 toast Vesper looked tense and said to you, “Nine o’clock, Marlo.” Tell people you took that to mean the announcement. Mention that you saw Jory’s orange fox mask hanging in the Coat Room earlier this evening.

ASK THESE QUESTIONS

- Ask Jory Greaves: “Where was your fox mask at half past eight?”
- Ask Darcy Wickliffe: “What did you and Vesper argue about after the toast?”

YOUR TASK

> Get two people to tell you, out loud, exactly where they were at 8:35.

ROUND 2

Read only when the Detective starts Round 2.

SHARE THIS WITH EVERYONE

Tell people that this afternoon Briar complained about not sleeping and said they keep sleep drops in that patchwork sewing bag. Say the Lantern Ghost has been seen every Halloween for years, and that Perry always seems to be nearby when it appears.

ASK THESE QUESTIONS

- Ask Briar Fallow: “What do you keep in the patchwork sewing bag on hook 5?”
- Ask Perry Lanthorn: “What were you doing on a stepladder outside the gallery windows?”

YOUR TASK

> Persuade one player that the Lantern Ghost had something to do with Vesper’s cup.

ROUND 3

Read only when the Detective starts Round 3.

SHARE THIS WITH EVERYONE

When the fox mask (Evidence #9) comes out, point out that Darcy wears gold face paint too. If anyone asks about the slate (Evidence #10), say you popped next door to the Stockroom for fresh wax for a few minutes, and that anyone could have chalked on that slate.

ASK THESE QUESTIONS

? Ask Hadley Cresswell: "Are you sure it was a fox mask you saw, and not some other orange mask?"

? Ask Darcy Wickliffe: "Who in this house has a key to the Back Stairs door?"

YOUR TASK

> Cast your ballot for someone else, and stay perfectly calm until Script 5 is read.

Never show this booklet to anyone. Bend the truth about your secret, never the evidence.

You are innocent.

You did not harm Vesper. You may still have something to hide.

BACKGROUND

You love Candlewick Hall, but you have never wanted to run it. Your bicycle repair shop in the Hollow closed in the spring and left you owing $4,000. You have told nobody, not even Vesper, until tonight.

YOUR SECRET

Right after the 8:15 toast you asked Vesper, quietly, by the ballroom doors, for a loan. Vesper said, “Not tonight, Darcy. After nine you’ll understand.” You are afraid the announcement cuts you out of the Hall altogether, and people saw your face fall.

WHAT YOU SAY ABOUT TONIGHT

At 8:15 you heard the toast. From 8:30 to 8:45 you stood in the Costume Parade line-up on the ballroom stage as entrant No. 2 and never left it. At about 8:48 you saw the Lantern Ghost through the ballroom windows. At 9:00 you and Hadley went to fetch Vesper and found Vesper asleep in the window chair, the pumpkin cup on the sill. Vesper never woke up.

YOUR GOALS

- Prove you never left the stage line between 8:30 and 8:45.
- Keep the loan and your debt quiet until Round 2.
- Find out what Vesper was going to announce.

HOW TO USE YOUR BOOKLET

Read each round only when the Detective starts it. Say your Share lines in your own words, ask your two questions and try your task. You may dodge questions about your secret until your booklet tells you to share it, but never lie about what you saw, and never change what an evidence card says.

You are innocent.

You did not harm Vesper. You may still have something to hide.

BACKGROUND

Last week Vesper told you that when the Hall becomes a museum, the real lanterns in the gallery will be replaced with electric bulbs. Eleven years of lantern nights, gone.

YOUR SECRET

You are the Lantern Ghost, and you have been every Halloween for eleven years: a battery tea light in a tiny lantern, sliding along clear fishing line from window one to window nine, pulled by hand from the terrace. Tonight you flew it one last time, hoping a famous ghost sighting in the Hollow Gazette would save the real lanterns.

WHAT YOU SAY ABOUT TONIGHT

From 8:25 you were on a stepladder on the terrace outside the gallery windows, tying the line (the Gazette camera photographed you at 8:30 and 8:36). Jory was lighting jack-o'-lanterns beside you. At 8:36, through window seven, you saw Vesper sipping from the pumpkin cup, and someone in a long black cloak hurrying away up the gallery toward the Back Stairs. You only saw their back. At 8:48 you flew the ghost.

YOUR GOALS

- Keep the Lantern Ghost secret until Round 3.
- Make sure everyone hears what you saw through window seven.
- Save the real lanterns of the gallery.

HOW TO USE YOUR BOOKLET

Read each round only when the Detective starts it. Say your Share lines in your own words, ask your two questions and try your task. You may dodge questions about your secret until your booklet tells you to share it, but never lie about what you saw, and never change what an evidence card says.

Yes, you were on a stepladder (Evidence #6). At that moment Hadley stood at the far, ballroom end of the gallery with a notebook. Hadley and the cloak were two different people.

ASK THESE QUESTIONS

Confess: you are the Lantern Ghost, and have been for eleven years. The fishing line (Evidence #4) and the torn supply slip signed "Pe" (Evidence #8) are yours. Explain why: the real lanterns. The ghost flew at 8:48, after Vesper had already taken the cup. It has nothing to do with what happened to Vesper.

ASK THESE QUESTIONS

BACKGROUND

Big nights keep you awake, so you carry sleep drops from your doctor in your patchwork sewing bag. Tonight the bag hung on hook 5 in the Coat Room. You also have a professional secret.

YOUR SECRET

This year you secretly sewed the costumes of four Costume Parade entrants. Vesper, the judge, warned last week that any "shop-bought" entry would be disqualified and the costume maker named at nine o'clock. You were sure the announcement was about you.

WHAT YOU SAY ABOUT TONIGHT

At 8:24 you fetched pins from your sewing bag in the Coat Room and saw Jory hang the fox mask on hook 3 and pin a note. From 8:30 to 8:45 you were on the ballroom stage pinning hems for the line-up, and never left. At about 9:10 you noticed the sleep drops were missing from your bag.

BACKGROUND

Your family has farmed the Hall's south field for forty years. Last week Vesper told you the field would become parking for the new museum. You shouted at Vesper in the pumpkin patch, and the whole market heard.

YOUR SECRET

Two days ago, angry and worried, you signed a deal to sell this year's entire pumpkin crop to the rival Ember Falls festival, not to Candlewick Hollow. Nobody here knows.

WHAT YOU SAY ABOUT TONIGHT

At 8:25 the fox mask fogged up while you were carving, so you hung it on hook 3 in the Coat Room and pinned a note to the hook. Briar was beside you, fetching pins from the sewing bag on hook 5. From 8:25 to 8:50 you were on the terrace lighting the jack-o'-lanterns, bare-faced (the Gazette camera caught you at 8:30 and 8:36). Perry was on a stepladder nearby. How this booklet works

- Before the ball: read page 2 alone. It holds your story and your secret.
- Round 1: the top half of page 3, when the Detective says so.
- Round 2: the lower half of page 3, below the cut line.
- Costume Parade: strike a pose and stay in character.
- Round 3: page 4. Then everyone casts a ballot.

Print this booklet single-sided, or cut page 3 on its dashed line, so later rounds can't show through.

THE BALL

Every Halloween, Vesper Ravensworth opens the old candle works on the hill for the Candlewick Costume Ball. This year Vesper promised "an announcement that will change Candlewick Hollow" at nine o'clock. Before it could be made, Vesper sat down in the window chair of the Lantern Gallery and never woke up. Minutes earlier, guests saw the Lantern Ghost drift past the glass.

Never show this booklet to anyone. Bend the truth about your secret, never the evidence.

You are innocent.

You did not harm Vesper. You may still have something to hide.

BACKGROUND

Vesper promised you the story first, “after nine.” You have never been good at waiting.

YOUR SECRET

At 8:10 you slipped into Vesper’s study off the Lantern Gallery and read the notes for nine o’clock on the desk. They said the Hall goes to the town as a Lantern Museum, that the six brass candle molds in the display case are fakes, and that “whoever sold them has until nine to tell me.”

WHAT YOU SAY ABOUT TONIGHT

You heard the 8:15 toast. From 8:30 to 8:38 you stood at the ballroom end of the Lantern Gallery, writing in your notebook. Outside the windows, Perry was up a stepladder fiddling with a latch. At about 8:35 you saw someone in a long black cloak and a fox mask carry a steaming pumpkin cup from the Back Stairs end down to Vesper’s chair. Vesper said, “Oh, thank you.” The figure said nothing and walked back toward the Back Stairs. At 9:00 you and Darcy found Vesper.

YOUR GOALS

- Make sure everyone hears what you saw at 8:35.
- Keep your visit to the study quiet until Round 2.
- Get the real story for the Gazette.

HOW TO USE YOUR BOOKLET

Read each round only when the Detective starts it. Say your Share lines in your own words, ask your two questions and try your task. You may dodge questions about your secret until your booklet tells you to share it, but never lie about what you saw, and never change what an evidence card says.

ASK THESE QUESTIONS

- Ask Jory Greaves: "Where were you at 8:35?"

The Gazette's terrace camera took the photos in Evidence #6, one every six minutes. Admit that at 8:10 you slipped into Vesper's study and read the notes for nine o'clock: the Hall goes to the town as a Lantern Museum. Keep the rest of the notes to yourself for now.

ASK THESE QUESTIONS

- Ask Perry Lanthorn: "What were you holding on that stepladder?"

Now share the rest of Vesper's notes, which match Evidence #11: the six brass candle molds in the display case are fakes, an appraiser comes on November 1, and "whoever sold them has until nine to tell me." Whoever carried that cup at 8:35 walked like someone who knew the house.

ASK THESE QUESTIONS

? Ask Marlo Quince: "Who in this house could tell a fake candle mold from a real one?"

? Ask Jory Greaves: "Did you wear your fox mask at all after 8:25?"

YOUR TASK

> Write tomorrow's Gazette headline on the back of your ballot.

BACKGROUND

You have spent ten years writing a history of the candle works. Vesper refused to let you borrow the Hall's archive.

YOUR SECRET

Last spring you borrowed the 1890 candle-works ledger from the library without asking and never put it back. You were afraid the museum appraiser would notice it missing.

WHAT YOU SAY ABOUT TONIGHT

From 8:20 to 8:50 you were alone in the library, putting the ledger back on its shelf before anyone noticed. At 8:48 you heard guests shout about the ghost and ran to the ballroom.

YOUR GOALS

- Keep the borrowed ledger quiet until Round 2.
- Tell the Lantern Ghost legend to anyone who will listen.
- Find out what the museum plan means for the archive.

HOW TO USE YOUR BOOKLET

Read each round only when the Detective starts it. Say your Share lines in your own words, ask your two questions and try your task. You may dodge questions about your secret until your booklet tells you to share it, but never lie about what you saw, and never change what an evidence card says.

ASK THESE QUESTIONS

Admit you borrowed the 1890 ledger last spring and slipped it back tonight. It lists six brass candle molds, made in 1890, each stamped with a small crescent moon. You can tell a real one from a copy by that moon.

ASK THESE QUESTIONS

- Ask Marlo Quince: “Do the molds in the display case still have their crescent-moon stamps?”
- Ask Darcy Wickliffe: “Did Vesper ever let anyone take things out of the Hall?”

YOUR TASK

The real molds would be worth a great deal to a collector, perhaps $1,800 for the six. A copy good enough to fool the town for two years must have been made by someone very handy with molds and wax.

ASK THESE QUESTIONS

? Ask Jory Greaves: "What did Vesper say about the museum when you two argued?"

? Ask Briar Fallow: "Could you have made a copy of a brass mold?"

YOUR TASK

BACKGROUND

The museum plan includes a museum café with its own cider supplier. Your biggest customer is about to disappear.

YOUR SECRET

This year's crop failed, so tonight's "Applegate pressed" cider is store-bought juice with your spices. You would hate anyone to know.

WHAT YOU SAY ABOUT TONIGHT

From 8:00 to 9:00 you were at the cider urn in the front hall. At 8:20 you filled Vesper's pumpkin cup yourself. Nobody in a fox mask came to your urn. At 8:00 you had topped up the gallery kettle; anyone in the gallery could pour from it.

You are innocent.

You did not harm Vesper. You may still have something to hide.

> If you are not in the game, nothing breaks. You are an optional character: the case can be solved without you, so play for fun, share freely and enjoy your secret.

BACKGROUND

The town will run the museum with its own staff. You may lose the job you have held for fifteen years.

YOUR SECRET

Your forty keys include the Back Stairs door, but you lost that one key a month ago and have not dared to tell Vesper.

WHAT YOU SAY ABOUT TONIGHT

From 8:20 to 8:50 you were at the front gate with a lantern, waving in latecomers. You came up the drive at 8:50 and heard about the ghost.

YOUR GOALS

- Keep the lost key quiet until Round 2.
- Work out who uses the Back Stairs door.
- Keep your job.

HOW TO USE YOUR BOOKLET

Read each round only when the Detective starts it. Say your Share lines in your own words, ask your two questions and try your task. You may dodge questions about your secret until your booklet tells you to share it, but never lie about what you saw, and never change what an evidence card says.

ROUND 1

Read only when the Detective starts Round 1.

SHARE THIS WITH EVERYONE

You were at the front gate from 8:20 to 8:50 with a lantern, guiding latecomers in. From the gate you could see the terrace lights but not the gallery windows. You know every door in the Hall.

ASK THESE QUESTIONS

? Ask Perry Lanthorn: "Why did you ask me for the terrace stepladder this afternoon?"

? Ask Darcy Wickliffe: "Did Vesper say anything to you about the staff?"

YOUR TASK

> Find out who has their own key to the Back Stairs door.

Round 2 · The Lantern Ghost

ROUND 2

Read only when the Detective starts Round 2.

SHARE THIS WITH EVERYONE

Admit that you lost your Back Stairs key a month ago. So tonight the only working keys to that door are Darcy's, Marlo's and Perry's. Also: the Back Stairs door was propped open with a wax block when you checked it at 7:45.

ASK THESE QUESTIONS

? Ask Marlo Quince: "Was that your wax block holding the Back Stairs door open?"

? Ask Auden Pryor: "Did anyone come into the library between 8:20 and 8:50?"

YOUR TASK

> Get one person to describe the Back Stairs to you.

NOTES · WHO SAID WHAT

Round 3 · Unmasked

ROUND 3

Read only when the Detective starts Round 3.

SHARE THIS WITH EVERYONE

Say you found the Back Stairs door shut and locked at 9:05, and the wax block was gone. Whoever used those stairs tonight tidied up after themselves.

ASK THESE QUESTIONS

? Ask Jory Greaves: "Did you ever go downstairs to the workshop floor tonight?"

? Ask Bexley Applegate: "Who did you see go toward the gallery?"

YOUR TASK

> Hand your ring of keys to the Detective and ask them to keep it safe.

COSTUME FROM YOUR CLOSET

A black cloak or shawl dotted with paper stars, lots of bangles and a scarf tied around your head.

Mask: a silver star mask cut from foil-covered card.

BRING TO THE BALL

- [ ] This booklet, folded shut
- [ ] A pen for your notes
- [ ] Your costume and mask

How this booklet works

Before the ball: read page 2 alone. It holds your story and your secret.

Round 1: the top half of page 3, when the Detective says so.

Round 2: the lower half of page 3, below the cut line.

Costume Parade: strike a pose and stay in character.

Round 3: page 4. Then everyone casts a ballot.

Print this booklet single-sided, or cut page 3 on its dashed line, so later rounds can't show through.

THE BALL

Every Halloween, Vesper Ravensworth opens the old candle works on the hill for the Candlewick Costume Ball. This year Vesper promised "an announcement that will change Candlewick Hollow" at nine o'clock. Before it could be made, Vesper sat down in the window chair of the Lantern Gallery and never woke up. Minutes earlier, guests saw the Lantern Ghost drift past the glass.

Never show this booklet to anyone. Bend the truth about your secret, never the evidence.

You are innocent.

You did not harm Vesper. You may still have something to hide.

> If you are not in the game, nothing breaks. You are an optional character: the case can be solved without you, so play for fun, share freely and enjoy your secret.

BACKGROUND

Vesper called your fortune booth “nonsense” and said it would not be part of the museum.

YOUR SECRET

Your fortune act is pure guesswork, helped by gossip you hear in the queue. Tonight you told everyone in your queue, “A door will close on someone at nine,” because you had overheard gossip about Vesper’s announcement.

WHAT YOU SAY ABOUT TONIGHT

From 8:15 to 8:50 you sat in the conservatory with your queue of fortune-seekers. Your black cloak never left the booth.

YOUR GOALS

- Prove your black cloak never left the conservatory.
- Keep your “gift” a secret until Round 2.
- Make one dramatic prediction that comes true.

HOW TO USE YOUR BOOKLET

Read each round only when the Detective starts it. Say your Share lines in your own words, ask your two questions and try your task. You may dodge questions about your secret until your booklet tells you to share it, but never lie about what you saw, and never change what an evidence card says.

You read fortunes in the conservatory from 8:15 to 8:50 with a queue the whole time. You wear a black cloak, yes, but it never left your booth. All evening you told your queue, "A door will close on someone at nine."

ASK THESE QUESTIONS

? Ask Darcy Wickliffe: "Do you believe in fortunes, and what did Vesper's last one say?"

? Ask Briar Fallow: "How many black cloaks did you make this year?"

YOUR TASK

> "Read the palm" of one suspect and predict where they were at 8:35.

Read only when the Detective starts Round 2.

SHARE THIS WITH EVERYONE

Confess your secret: the fortunes are guesswork and gossip. Your "door will close at nine" came from queue chatter about Vesper's announcement. Everyone knew something big was coming at nine.

ASK THESE QUESTIONS

? Ask Hadley Cresswell: "Do you print fortunes in the Gazette?"

? Ask Corin Thimble: "What did you see from the balcony?"

YOUR TASK

> Find one person who believes in the Lantern Ghost and one who doesn't.

NOTES · WHO SAID WHAT

Say that face paint tells a story too: gold paint rubs onto anything you press against your face. Then make your big prediction: "The truth is downstairs."

ASK THESE QUESTIONS

? Ask Jory Greaves: "Did you ever paint your face this year?"

? Ask Teagan Bramwell: "Who uses the Back Stairs most?"

YOUR TASK

> Write your prediction on your ballot and see if it comes true.

BACKGROUND

The folder holds the deed of gift: Candlewick Hall goes to the town as the Candlewick Lantern Museum. You helped draw it up.

YOUR SECRET

You privately advised the town council to refuse the gift because the roof repairs would cost a fortune. If Vesper had found out, you would have lost Vesper's trust.

WHAT YOU SAY ABOUT TONIGHT

From 8:30 to 8:45 you waited in Vesper's study with the door shut, as Vesper asked. At about 8:35 you heard soft footsteps pass in the gallery toward Vesper's chair and, a minute later, quick footsteps going back toward the Back Stairs.

YOUR GOALS

BACKGROUND

Vesper refused to let you sell copies of the parade photos and planned to give the museum all your old negatives.

YOUR SECRET

You have been selling the parade photos online anyway, for three years, under another name.

WHAT YOU SAY ABOUT TONIGHT

From 8:20 to 8:50 you were alone in the portrait room upstairs, setting up lights and a backdrop for the winners' photo. The portrait room is up the main staircase, far from the Back Stairs.
